Free Landfill Days April 12-13, 2014

Free Landfill Days for City of Tulsa utility customers are scheduled April 12-13 at the Quarry Landfill on 46th Street North, approximately 1-1/2 miles east of U.S. 169.

On those days Tulsa utility customers can dispose of unwanted items at the landfill, with some exceptions as noted below.

The Quarry Landfill address is 13740 E. 46th St. North. The open hours will be 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day. The landfill closes promptly at 3 p.m.

Participants must show a City of Tulsa utility bill or a driver's license with an address within the Tulsa city limits in order to be admitted to the landfill.

No items containing Freon refrigerant will be accepted (air conditioners and refrigerators).

There are state-imposed fees for discarding tires. The fee is $2 per tire for City of Tulsa customers during free landfill days.

Loads in trucks and trailers should be secured and covered to prevent contents from blowing out onto roadways and creating traffic hazards.

NOTE: There are two landfills on East 46th Street North. Look for the Quarry Waste Management Inc. signs.

SpringFest Garden Market & Festival April 11-12

Everyone is invited to the Tulsa Garden Center's 2014 SpringFest Garden Market & Festival, April 11-12 at the Tulsa Garden Center, 2435 S. Peoria Ave.

Attendees can purchase plants and gardening supplies and talk with experts in various garden specialties, purchase plants chosen especially for the local climate and soils. They can view and purchase art, shop for crafts and visit the "Kid's Zone" with fun activities..

The Linnaeus Teaching Garden staff and volunteers will sell plants from their gardens and will be available to answer questions about many garden techniques and specialties.

Vendors outside and inside the historic Tulsa Garden Center home will offer craft items for home and garden. Inside the mansion there will be a bird house auction, plus food concessions.

Guests can visit the beautiful Linnaeus Teaching Garden, a state-of-the-art demonstration garden in Woodward Park, adjacent to the Garden Center, which demonstrates an array of ideas for the home gardener.

Proceeds from SpringFest Garden Market and Festival benefit the Tulsa Garden Center. For more information call (918) 746-5125 or visit the website at

Bring Household Pollutants for Disposal at Expo Square

Tulsans can dispose of household chemicals and toxic hazards in a safe manner at the upcoming Household Pollutant Collection Event.

The two-day event is open 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 5, and Sunday, April 6, 2014, at the Tulsa Fairgrounds (Expo Square), Gate 7. It is co-hosted by 11 local government entities, including the City of Tulsa and the Metropolitan Environmental Trust (M.e.t.).

To deliver items at the event, enter the fairgrounds from 15th Street through Gate 7 for easy access. This event is free to Tulsa-area residents.

Accepted items include household cleaners and toxins, yard-care products and pesticides, acids, caustics, thinners, household flammable liquids, all fluorescent light bulbs, firearms ammunition (.50 caliber or smaller), smoke alarms, thermostats, oil, antifreeze and oil-based, aerosol, and hobby paints. Also accepted are prescription medications. Items brought to this event will be disposed of in a safe, environmentally responsible manner.

Items NOT accepted at the event include latex paint, commercial waste, radioactive waste, pressurized gas cylinders, water reactive chemicals, explosives and dioxins. Latex paint can be disposed of safely by opening the container and allowing the paint to dry completely. Refuse collectors will accept dried latex paint cans in a plastic trash bag in their refuse container.

Transport hazardous waste to the event in the trunk of a car or bed of a pickup truck. Those bringing chemicals for disposal should wear gloves while handling and transporting the materials. Workers will remove items from vehicles at the event. For a complete list of items accepted at the fairgrounds Household Pollutant Collection Event, visit www.metrecycle.com or call (918) 584-0584.
