DOWNTOWN CURFEW FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where Is the Downtown Curfew in Effect?

The Downtown Curfew is in effect for Downtown Tulsa within the Inner Dispersal Loop (IDL), an area bounded by a street network on the east by the east leg of the part of U.S. Highway 75 South/ Interstate Highway 444 (I-44); on the west by U.S. Highway 64 West / Oklahoma State Highway 51 West/ Interstate Highway 244 (I-244); on the north by U.S. Highway 412 East/ I-244; and on the south by the Broken Arrow Expressway, U.S. Highway 64 West/ U.S. Highway 75 South/ Oklahoma State Highway 51 West, part of I-44.

How Will the Downtown Curfew Be Enforced?

If an officer reasonably believes a person is under 18 and observes that person in Downtown Tulsa after curfew hours, the officer is required to first ask the person their age and reason for being in Downtown Tulsa. If the person is under 18, prior to taking any enforcement action, the officer will otherwise try to determine whether the person:

- is with a parent or responsible adult;
- is working or returning to or from work;
- is attending, going to, or returning home from an event such as a ballgame or concert;
- is going to or returning home from an official school, religious or recreational activity supervised by adults; or
- is involved in an emergency

If the officer is unable to determine any of the above information and reasonably believes the person is in violation of the curfew ordinance, the officer may take enforcement action. Generally, officers will first ask the person to leave the Downtown Tulsa area prior to taking enforcement action depending on the circumstances.

Who Is Considered a 'Responsible Adult?'

"Responsible adult" is defined by the ordinance but generally means an individual who is over 18 years old, who has or who has been charged with the permanent and/or temporary care and/or custody of the juvenile.

What Is the Consequence for Those Who Violate the Downtown Curfew?

Violators are subject to a fine not to exceed $200, excluding costs fees and assessments. The Court may require community service work prescribed by the Court in lieu of a fine.
