Summary of Conflict-of-Interest Laws (as of June 25, 2026)

Art. X § 11 of the Oklahoma Constitution provides that it is a felony for an officer of a city to receive “any interest, profit, or perquisites, arising from the use or loan of public funds in his hands, or moneys to be raised through his agency for ... city ... purposes.” See also 21 Okla. Stat. § 341.

Tulsa’s Charter, Art. XII § 13, provides that, if a City Official has a direct or indirect financial interest in City business, the Official shall disclose and shall not vote or participate in the matter. Violation “shall render vacant the position held by the person in violation hereof.”

Tulsa’s Ethics Code, Title 12, Chapter 6, provides that City Officials (including ABC appointees) shall not:

- receive, directly or indirectly, any financial or pecuniary interest, profit, or privilege arising from the use or loan of public funds or monies raised for City purposes, to a greater extent than could reasonably be expected to accrue to the general public, if the City Official also exercises control by appropriating, encumbering, or expending the funds;
- use or permit the use of City resources for personal or private purposes, except as provided by rules adopted by the appropriate Appointing Authority to address minor or incidental uses common to an ordinary workplace;
- participate in any City business in which they have a related Financial or Organizational Interest; or
- solicit or receive gifts, entertainment, or other favors, which may influence or be reasonably perceived as influencing a City Official in the performance of the Official's duties.

Please note, if you serve as a trustee to a Public Trust established under Title 60 of state law (e.g. EMSA, MTTA, RPA, TMUA/RMUA, TAE0, TAIT, TARE, TPACT, TPFA, TST), Title 60 Okla. Stat. § 178.8 provides that “a conflict of interest shall be deemed to exist in any contractual relationship in which a trustee of a public trust, or any for-profit firm or corporation in which such trustee or any member of his or her immediate family is an officer, partner, principal stockholder, shall directly or indirectly buy or sell goods or services to, or otherwise contract with such trust.”
